Doing business
just got easier.

Nothing is as important to the success of your company as the selection of your most important asset - your employees.

Our Team

HIGHLY SPECIALIZED VETERAN RECRUITERS

Each member of Marvel's team specializes in a particular area or discipline. Over 70% of our recruitment professionals are Certified Personnel Consultants (CPC), a designation awarded to individuals who have completed at least two years in the profession and have passed a rigorous test. This test ensures that these individuals know the legal and operational aspects and comply with the ethical standards of our industry. Our skilled consultants will provide you with an effective solution to all your recruitment needs.

Our Process

CUSTOMIZED TO MEET YOUR NEEDS

We value your input. So together we establish the guidelines and procedures to be followed throughout the process. The entire process is customized to serve your immediate and long-term goals. Together we develop a detailed description of the position and define the required qualifications. Our consultants then prepare and complete an extensive campaign to locate your candidates. All prospective candidates are thoroughly screened, including an evaluation of personal and business qualifications and a complete employment history. Throughout this process, your anonymity is always secure, so your business remains uninterrupted, and the competition is unaware of internal changes.

Our Commitment

FINDING YOUR MOST VALUABLE ASSETS

Your employees are truly your most important assets, so finding and retaining those employees becomes vital to your success. Because we do our job well, our client companies consistently enjoy exceptional retention rates and promotability factors. We are committed to finding the best candidates and simplifying your recruitment search.

Our Fees

MODEST FEES - RETAINED SEARCH OR CONTINGENCY BASIS

Marvel's fees are modest, and in most circumstances, hiring a person through our recruitment process costs far less than when companies handle the advertising, screening, and hiring themselves. We are dedicated to providing you with knowledgeable consultants who will effectively and cost-efficiently identify, recruit, and screen the top candidates for your organization or company on either a retained search or contingency basis.

Why Marvel

Consultants, Inc.?

EXPERIENCE AND EXPERTISE

Marvel Consultants has been recruiting highly qualified personnel and serving firms of all sizes for over a quarter century. Leading companies and organizations depend on us to meet their personnel needs. Our recruiting specialists have effectively served a wide range of clients, large and small, public and private. When clients choose our candidates, they consistently experience higher rates of offer acceptance, exceptional retention rates, and high promotion rates.

Our Function

WE SIMPLIFY YOUR SEARCH PROCESS

We provide permanent placements for essential positions in companies and organizations worldwide. Our goal is to reduce the interval between a vacant position and candidate selection. With our team of consultants assisting you throughout the recruitment process, your organization or business will remain uninterrupted and productive, so executive time can be devoted to more urgent duties. We help you simplify the entire search process.
